DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. § 119, which papers have been placed of record in the file.

The Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The specification is missing brief Description of Drawings.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

Claims 3-15 are objected to because of the following informalities: . Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 3-15 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim must refer to the parent claim in the alternative only. Claim 3 does not refer to claims 1 or 2 in alternative language. Also, a multiple dependent claim should not be depend from another multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 3-15 has not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1746

Claim 1 is confusing and incomplete in the recitation of "removal of the liquid phase". The applicant is advised to provide a positive step such as "removing the liquid phase". Further, claim 1 is indefinite in the recitations of "the liquid phase (solution)" and "solid phase (cutting)" because it is not clear what is being claimed.

Double Patenting

Claims 1-2 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-2 of copending application Serial No. 10/736,743.

Copending application Serial No. 10/736,743 claimed all the limitation as claimed herein except the step of "optional mixing".

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed process use a optional step of mixing with an inert material and one of ordinary skill in the art would have exclude the mixing step with inert material since it is optional in the process.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

The non-statutory double patenting rejection, whether of the obvious-type or non-obvious-type, is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent. In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); In re Van Ornam, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); and In re Goodman, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321 (b) and © may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a non-statutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.78 (d).

Art Unit: 1746

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a Terminal Disclaimer. A Terminal Disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

- (a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.
- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- (c) he has abandoned the invention.
- (d) the invention was first patented or caused to be patented, or was the subject of an inventor's certificate, by the applicant or his legal representatives or assigns in a foreign country prior to the date of the application for patent in this country on an application for patent or inventor's certificate filed more than twelve months before the filing of the application in the United States.
- (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.
- (f) he did not himself invent the subject matter sought to be patented.
- (g) before the applicant's invention thereof the invention was made in this country by another who had not abandoned, suppressed, or concealed it. In determining priority of invention there shall be considered not only the respective dates of conception and reduction to practice of the invention, but also the reasonable diligence of one who was first to conceive and last to reduce to practice, from a time prior to conception by the other.

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Tunnicliffe et al.

Tunnicliffe et al (2002/0144717) disclose a method for decontamination of oily cuttings by contacting the cuttings with a solvent in chamber 118 and increasing the pressure and temperature of the chamber (see [0082-0084]) and allowed to separate into an organic phase and an aqueous phase, followed by removal of extracted oil/contaminants as a solution, followed by recovery of an oily fraction and carbon dioxide vapor phase. The reference disclose that during the downstream, separation phase of the process gaseous carbon dioxide is taken out of the separator 138. The reference discloses to use the pressure and temperature range as the claimed process (see [0048-0050]).

The Prior art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Heihecker et al (4,836,302) disclose a method of cleaning oil-based drilling cuttings by mixing a solvent with the cuttings at ambient temperature and pressure; separating cuttings from a slurry; heating the solvent and drill cuttings and condensing the vaporized solvent for recycle.
